

MOUNTED SHOOTING Clinic Series

The Western Shooting Horse Vaqueros Mounted Shooting Club of Tijeras, New Mexico, is offering 3 mounted shooting clinics in 2010. You may attend all 3 for a package price of $200 or attend individual clinics for $75.00 each.

Introduction to Cowboy Mounted Shooting

May 1, 2010 - 9:00 am - 1:00 pm - $75.00

An introduction to the sport of Cowboy Mounted Shooting. This clinic will focus on the very basics of the sport with segments covering:

- Guns - What types and how to safely handle and shoot them
- Ammo - What's in it and how to load and unload it
- Gun leather - What types and how we use them
- Shooting - Students will shoot a variety of guns
- Horse Desensitizing - Bring your horse and begin gunfire desensitization

Starting to Compete

May 16, 2010 - 9:00 am - 1:00 pm - $75.00

This clinic will focus on intermediate tasks of the sport and will include:

- Shooting from Horseback and the Art of the Gun Change
- Rules of Engagement
- Target Acquisition
- Course Management Basics
- Tack Check - Making sure you have the right equipment
- Engage Course - Students will engage a course of fire

Competition Techniques and Strategy

May 23, 2010 - 9:00 am - 1:00 pm - $75.00

This clinic takes students deeper into the competition and focusses on specific techniques and strategies for advancing in the sport.

- Detailed Course Management
- Course Strategy
- Dissecting the Barrel Turn
- Correct Leads, Correct lines and Correct Rating strategy
- Engage Course - Students will engage several courses of fire and are invited to shoot a four-stage Vaquero practice match immediately following clinic ($35).

Clinics held at the Moriarty Heritage Rodeo Arena, Moriarty, N.M.

Please call Cynthia for information at 505-286-0100

Limited Entries - Register Online Today at www.westernshootinghorse.com/Vaqueros

